

Micklem Newsletter

7th October 2022

Dear Parents and Carers,

Another great week at Micklem with lots of learning happening all across the school. Year 2 have been learning about poetry; they have written a class poem called 'The Surprise' using some brilliant descriptive language.

I would like to thank everyone who donated and paid for cakes last Friday at our MacMillan coffee morning and afternoon cake sale - we managed to raise £158.40 for the charity. Well done to Ahmet, who won 'Colin the Caterpillar' in our charity raffle!

I wish you all a safe and happy weekend.

Mr. Swift

Monday 17th October 5:30

A chance to meet with Mr. Swift, as he shares his vision for Micklem moving forward.

Some of the highlights will be:

- Our PSHE curriculum
- No Outsiders
- Homework
- Arbor
- Behaviour Expectations

The Surprise

Tip-toeing through the spiky bushes.
I feel soft, squidgy mud under my soaking feet.
Angry red and sunset orange,
Clear, skeleton leaves.
Autumn colours! Fire colours!
Stripey green and shiny yellow.
Deafening thunder and shocking,
white lightning.
ROAR! Help!
Run for your life!

Dacorum

Flu symptoms

If your child is feeling under the weather but well enough to come to school, then please send them in as usual.

If your child has a runny nose or a cough, etc and is feeling unwell then please keep them off school until they are better - this will help to stop the spread of germs to others.

Flu jabs are available from your GP for a small fee.

Reminder: Free event for SEND family support 9th November

PE lessons

If there is a medical reason why your child/children cannot take part in a PE lesson, please can you contact the school office or provide a written note for your child to give to their class teacher.

IQ Cards

Children will be bringing home their Christmas cards today. If you would like to order cards in your child's design, you will need to return the slip with payment by Friday 14th October. The instructions will be on the card.

Amazing writing!

It was dead silent in the house, Lucy's tummy tingled. She was worried. "What if it's the wolves again?" Lucy said anxiously to herself. Lucy was nearly asleep until...Bang! Crash! Then a scream from mum.

Amirah - Year 5

Well done to the winner of our Mamillan charity raffle!
